Keep up to date on recent news in OL and instructional technology by following us on social media:

A new sign in experience is now in place for Moodle. Upon launching Moodle, a sign in page will display.

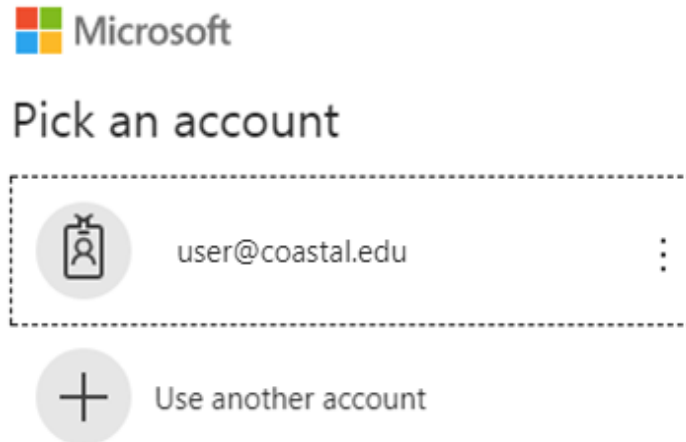

On the first login:

A window will appear for "Sign in" by entering your Coastal e-mail address then clicking "Next".

On consecutive logins from the same computer and internet browser:

A window will appear asking you to "Pick an account". Click on your Coastal e-mail address.

On every sign in:

The message "Taking you to your organization's sign-in page" will appear.

You are now taken to your Moodle landing page. When you log out of Moodle, a screen will appear stating that "You signed out of your account".

You signed out of your account

It's a good idea to close all browser windows.
