TED Talk / Media Response Activity

Locate a TEDTalk -or- sourced media presentation that is of personal interest to you. Watch the presentation and complete the following prompts.

Title of TEDTalk/Media and url:
Name of Speaker:
What was the main topic or thesis?
What themes did you observe throughout?
ETHOS is a speaker's ability to build credibility and positionality as an expert. How did the speaker build ethos?
PATHOS is the appeal to one's emotions in order to connect and sway an audience; LAGOS is the use of evidence and data to do the same. Did this speaker rely more on pathos or lagos? Which argument was the most compelling?
argument was the most compening:
What are 3 specific things you learned from this presentation?
What are 3 specific things you rearried from this presentation.

Provide 2 pieces of constructive criticism for this presentation.
Miller Procedure and a conference for a college of the conference
What lingering questions do you have about this topic?