Additional Information:I (student), my parent, and/or my parent's spouse filed taxes in 2022. What must I/we do?

If your (the student), your parent and/or your parent's spouse's 2022 income tax return was used and successfully imported into the FAFSA, no further documentation is needed to verify 2022 income information in most cases.

If your (the student), your parent, and/or your parent's spouse's income tax return was unavailable or could not be used or imported into the FAFSA and you and/or they had to manually enter this information, CCU's Financial Aid and Scholarships office will likely request a signed copy of your and/or their 2022 Tax Return (including Schedules 1, 2, and 3 if filed) or 2022 Tax Return Transcript AND copies of their 2022 W-2 and Schedule C forms. *

The above information should only be submitted for an individual if it has been specifically requested on Required Financial Aid Documents in MyCCU or in an email received from Financial Aid and Scholarships.
