Summary of Activities

- The committee discussed the process of updating committee representation to include students from National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) instead of Resident Housing Association (RHA) to reflect current practices related to auxiliary services. The committee will continue to discuss committee make-up over the 2024-2025 academic year.
- The committee reviewed and discussed the Sick Note Resolution proposed by SGA. The committee supported the resolution being added to the Faculty Senate agenda in April 2024. The resolution was sent back to the committee from Faculty Senate. The committee will discuss necessary changes and revisions to the resolution over the 2024-2025 academic year.
- The committee received monthly updates and reports provided by the following departments/units:
 - Campus Life and Student Engagement (Amanda Eisele)
 - Dean of Students (Iliana Melendez)
 - Academic Integrity Officer (Fredrick Wood)
- The Committee reviewed and discussed the Code of Student Conduct updates proposed from the Academic Integrity Office and the Academic Integrity Committee. The committee supported moving the updates to the May 2024 Faculty Senate Meeting for adoption.

Future Committee Work

- Work with SGA to fill senate seats and encourage student participation in SGA.
- Work with SGA to revise the Sick Note Resolution sent back from Faculty Senate during the 2023-2024 calendar year.
- Continue to review the Code of Student Conduct.
